

Natural Flea and Tick Prevention

Dr. Mercola's pet line created by veterinarian Dr. Karen Becker

<http://products.mercola.com/healthypets/pest-repellents/>

Wondercide www.wondercide.com- apply 2-3 times a week for flea and tick control.

Cedar chips (can spray with Eucalyptus oil for synergistic effect)

Essential Oils: NOT FOR CATS

use a carrier oil like coconut oil, add oil to massage gently into skin daily.

Cedar oil for fleas.

Lemon Myrtle (or other lemon oil) and Eucalyptus, are a great combination for ticks.

Catnip oil for mosquitos and ticks.

Rose Geranium for ticks.

Chrysanthemum oil for fleas and ticks.

Cinnamon oil for fleas and ticks.

Lemongrass Oil for fleas and ticks.

Dr. Shelton's Atomic Bug Spray-- check out www.oilyvet.com

Collar Companions- check out <http://daisypaw.com/>

Plant round leaf mint around the perimeter of the house.

Spread Neem leaves in pens/cages/outdoor areas.

Natural Pyrethrin spray (approved by organic farmers) Pyganic EC

<http://www.biconet.com/botanicals/pyGanic.html>

TickZ is an herbal supplement added to the food to repel ticks and other biting insects.

<http://www.petzlife.com/catalog/tickz-tick-control.html>

Ultrasonic, magnetic or scalar repellent products can be put on collars or halters- check out Zero Bug Zone.

Diatomaceous Earth- food grade can be applied topically and in the house and yard. Be careful of inhalation.